Application Deadline & Basic Admitting Transfer Stats and requirements:

- Transfer Students – only transfer courses with grades of C or higher are considered for transfer
  - grade of C- or lower will not transfer
    - The school of nursing accepts new students into the clinical component once a year. Students should apply by the February 1 deadline, for admission to the clinical courses that will begin the next August.
    - The application is available to be printed from the School of Nursing website between December 1 – February 1. Go to www.unc.edu/nur Choose Academic Programs, then Undergraduate Programs, then scroll down to “Documents of Interest.” Students must also apply for admission to UNCG; the School of Nursing will not accept students into the clinical component who have not been admitted to UNCG. The program takes about two years of academic study (junior/senior years after transfer) – depending on how many hours transfer, may be able to finish in one year plus two years of clinical – others need 4 years to finish after transfer.
    - Major criteria for admission is grade point average
    - Transfer students with more than 30 transferred must earn a 2.7 or higher UNCG GPA on the first 12 hours attempted at UNCG in order to remain a declared nursing major – incoming transfer and second degree students must have a transfer GPA of 2.7 or greater to declare nursing as their major.

- BS-BSN Students/Second Degree – The program has 5 prerequisites plus 2 years of clinical courses. Students must apply for admission to the clinical courses via a separate application for admission to UNCG. The deadline is February 1. The prereqs include Anatomy, Physiology, Microbiology, concepts in Nursing and Nursing Assessment of Well Individuations (the latter two need to be taken at UNCG). Students must pass the above courses with a C or better to be considered for acceptance into the clinical program.
