CAREER SERVICES OFFICE

Social Media:
CALS Career Services has taken advantage of reaching students through their own communication methods. Updated profiles are on Facebook, and YouTube as well as Twitter. So far, over 250 students have become fans of the CALS Career Services’ Facebook page and it is still growing. These website profiles are prevalent among college students and are treated as a means to keep connected with others. Please visit our fan pages by selecting the appropriate icon on these sites:
www.cals.ncsu.edu/career

Just Who Will I Be?:
All three of the workshops that are available throughout October have been completed. This is the 4th year of completing these workshops and Career Services looks forward to continuing to educate freshmen on how to make appropriate career decisions.

Career Expo:
The CALS Career Expo was Oct. 28th from 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. The number of companies registered for the Expo had increased since last year, with 84 companies and graduate schools attending.

On Campus Recruiting:
Great feedback followed the student interviews for General Mills which were conducted October 6th. Recruiters were impressed with the quality of candidates’ interviews as well as how full their schedule was for the day. More interviews are scheduled for November, which include Pioneer Hi-Bred, Clorox, and Cargill. Students can find all the details in ePACK. Faculty can also request access to ePACK by emailing Melissa at melissa_kahn@ncsu.edu.

ePACK:
There have been an increased amount of job postings which brings excitement to our office! Many internships have been posted for students to apply online, as well as some full time positions for recent graduates. Please encourage students to check out this amazing resource which could be the link between them and their next job.

Bookmark:
Have you noticed the bookmarks floating around campus? If not, you soon will! There are new University bookmarks being distributed which highlight all of the University’s career services and opportunities. This is one way that CALS is linking with the entire university to encourage students to begin thinking about their future.

Mock Interview:
180 students participated in videotaped mock interviews. Thanks to the help of our talented CALS IT team, students can view their video on line to determine how to improve the real thing.

AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE OFFICE

Celebrating the Past...Leading the Future...The Agricultural Institute celebrated its 50th Anniversary and Alumni Reunion on Saturday, October 16, 2010 at the Holiday Inn – Brownstone. There were over 200 alumni and friends in attendance. The first class, Class of 1962, was very well represented. Of the 95 students that graduated that year, 15 returned for the celebration. Each member of the ’62 class was presented with a framed picture of their graduating class. It was a special event for all involved. As part of the AGI @ 50 Celebration, our Alumni Committee solicited donations/sponsors to help support educational programs, internships, international experiences, leadership development, as well as personal and professional growth for our students. Over $34,000 was raised for this purpose with three sponsors in our Golden Anniversary category (over $5000), Wendell H. (Dell) Murphy, Jr., NC Pork Council and Crop Protection Services – Coastal NC Division & Mid NC/VA Division. A BIG thank you to all who made this event a great success!!

Senior Breakfast
The Agricultural Institute will host a breakfast for its graduating seniors on Wednesday, December 1, 2010. The breakfast will begin at 7:15am in 2405 Williams Hall. Please RSVP at: http://harvest.cals.ncsu.edu/applications/cals_registration/index.cfm?eventID=409

Graduation
The Agricultural Institute graduation ceremony will be Friday, December 17 at 3:00pm in the Witherspoon Student Center Cinema (NOTE LOCATION CHANGE). All are welcome to attend. Please RSVP at: http://harvest.cals.ncsu.edu/applications/cals_registration/index.cfm?eventID=408

NORTH CAROLINA COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE

New Rural Tax Education Website Helps Farmers, Others
Farmers, ranchers and other producers now have an online source – RuralTax.org – for reliable, up-to-date information about income tax and self-employment tax. According to Guido van der Hoeven, North Carolina Cooperative Extension economics specialist and past co-chair of the National Farm
Walden Receives Top UNC System Award
Michael L. Walden, William Neal Reynolds Distinguished Professor of economics at North Carolina State University, received the Award for Excellence in Public Service today from the Board of Governors of the multi-campus University of North Carolina. The award, announced during the Board’s regular October meeting, was established in 2007 to encourage, identify, recognize, and reward distinguished public service and outreach by faculty across the University. The 2010 award carries a $7,500 cash prize and was presented by UNC President Erskine Bowles and Public Service Award Committee Chairman Charles Hayes of Sanford.

New County Extension Directors Named
New directors have been named for Cooperative Extension centers in Currituck, Jones, Mecklenburg, Jackson and Swain counties.
Read more about the new directors on the Extension News portion of the CALS News Center.

- Cameron S. Lowe, a former biotechnology teacher and 4-H agent, became the director of the N.C. Cooperative Extension center in Currituck County on Sept. 17. She succeeds Rodney Sawyer, who retired as Currituck County Extension director in 2009 after 31 years of service.
- Mark Seitz, associate area specialized Extension agent based in Jones County, has been named director of the N.C. Cooperative Extension center in Pender County, effective Oct. 1. Seitz succeeds Wayne Batten, who retired from Cooperative Extension in Pender County July 1, 2009.
- Robbie Furr, a North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service 4-H agent for the last 15 years, has been named to direct Cooperative Extension programs in Mecklenburg County. Furr succeeds Jim Monroe, who retired last year after a nearly 30-year career with Cooperative Extension. Furr has served as interim Mecklenburg director since Monroe’s retirement.
- Robert J. Hawk, a community resource development Extension agent for a 12-county area of western North Carolina, has been named the new county Extension director for both Jackson and Swain counties. Hawk succeeds Jeffrey E. Seiler, who retired in October 2009, after serving as county Extension director in both counties for 10 years.

Cabarrus Youth Earn County Fair Honors
Youth incarcerated at Concord’s Stonewall Jackson Youth Development Center were able to participate in this year’s Cabarrus County Fair through projects they created with 4-H clubs on the center’s campus. 4-H Extension Agent Heather Jones and Cooperative Extension of Cabarrus County partnered with Stonewall Jackson YDC to offer experiences through 4-H that to help youth learn live skills to help them become more engaged with the community.

PHHI Cluster Hire Search Status
Progress on Faculty Hires for the Plants for Human Health Institute, 2010
Although the search committee (comprised of faculty members from multiple departments in CALS) was commissioned early in 2009, the subsequent state budget freeze temporarily suspended the ongoing search for new faculty members for the Institute. Following re-authorization by Dean Wynne 22 April 2010, formal advertisements for three NC State faculty positions, to be physically located in facilities at the Plants for Human Health Institute (PHHI) in Kannapolis, were posted in multiple venues, with a closing date of August 2010. (http://www.ncresearchcampus.net/). Candidates submitted vitae, contact information for 3 referees, and research interests. Selected faculty members in each of the three position categories – Systems Biology, Plant Pharmacogenomics, and Plant Metabolic Pathway Engineering – would be expected to join a unique transdisciplinary team in the PHHI, to investigate the bioactive, health-protective constituents of plant-based foods, and their relevance to human health maintenance. The search committee met 10 September 2010 to triage the applications and prioritize a selection of 6 candidates for each of the three positions. Each of the 18 prioritized candidates was subsequently contacted by the committee chair (Lila), and letters of reference were solicited. At this time, candidates were also asked to describe research arenas that they would intend to launch after coming to the PHHI.

Last week (20 October 2010), after review of the letters and supplemental materials, the search committee reconvened to further narrow down the applicant pool. Three (3) candidates were selected in each of the three (3) categories to be brought in for interviews, and host departments were determined. A follow up conference with the relevant departmental heads was conducted 26 October 2010 in order to coordinate plans for interviews. Candidates to be interviewed were contacted and scheduling for the interviews (1 day on main campus in Raleigh/1 day in Kannapolis at the NCRC) is underway.

NC Commercial Blackberry and Raspberry Field Day

The NC Commercial Blackberry and Raspberry Field Day was held on October 21, 2010 at the Sunny Ridge-Owls Den Farm in Lincoln County, NC.

Approximately 60 growers and industry representatives attended, and it was the inaugural year for this type of Field Day. Those attending learned about weed management, fertility and fertilizer application calibration, insect management, pesticide spray calibration, and new equipment technology for these crops.

Faculty members from the Department of Entomology, Department of Horticultural Science, Cleveland County Extension, and representatives from the NC Department of Agriculture and Consumer Sciences and various farm-related businesses made presentations.

Josh Beam, President of the NC Commercial Blackberry and Raspberry Growers Association, provided opening remarks.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Student Visitors from UNA

IPO had a very successful week hosting our student group of visitors from Universidad Nacional de Agricultura (UNA) in Honduras the week of October 17, 2010. We visited Vollmer and Meadow Lane Farms in Franklin County, the Franklin County Extension office, CEFS, the NCDA labs, the Fish Barn and Waste Management and other local research sites. The students took a survey and unanimously told us they were pleased with what they had seen and learned during their week here at NC State. The students even had their pictures published in our Technician paper as they visited agriculture exhibitions and experienced all the flair that the NC State Fair had to offer. Our office could not execute the week without the many volunteers and assistance from faculty assisted us each day and evening. Thank you to all who were involved in providing such a successful and important learning experience. We look forward to continuing and enhancing this yearly event with our partner institution.
Visitors from Costa Rica

International Programs and Animal Science will be hosting two visitors from the University of Costa Rica (UCR) beginning November 1 to discuss collaboration with agroecology and sustainability programs between the institutions. The visitors plan to provide an informal information session for faculty and graduate students on UCR’s progress with organic efforts in Costa Rica with their institution and with other neighboring institutions Friday, November 5, 2-4 PM in room 125 Polk Hall. Please contact Patricia Holoman 515-2818 / patricia_holoman@ncsu.edu if you have further questions.

Visitors from Chinese Ministry of Agriculture

International Programs will be hosting a large group of both Ministry Officials and scientists from China on November 11 to discuss both regulatory and research issues. Faculty from the Entomology Department and the CIPM will be presenting among other faculty from NCARS on the Kannapolis Research Campus. We anticipate this visit to encourage stronger collaborations with the Ministry and the Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences. Please contact Patricia Holoman 515-2818 / patricia_holoman@ncsu.edu if you have further questions.

Upcoming Seminar

Save the date—

A seminar will be held on November 19th for the BARD Program on International Funding Opportunities:

Where: Room 2405 Williams Hall NCSU Campus
When: 9:30 AM – 11:30 AM, Friday November 19, 2010

"BARD is a competitive funding program for mutually beneficial, mission-oriented, strategic and applied research of agricultural problems jointly conducted by American and Israeli scientists. BARD also supports international workshops and fellowships."

The Seminar Topics will be:

- BARD, the US-Israel Bi-national Agricultural Research & Development Fund – Operations, Achievements and Funding Opportunities - Edo Chalutz, Ph.D., Executive Director, BARD Fund, Bet Dagan, Israel

- Israel’s Agriculture and International Development Cooperation with Developing Countries - Mr. Zvi Herman, Israeli Agriculture and Science Attaché, Israeli Embassy, Washington, DC

Please contact Paul Mueller at 515-2665 / paul_mueller@ncsu.edu if you have questions

OFFICE OF DIVERSITY

Recruit for the Dean’s Graduate Research Assistantship competition- The CALS Diversity Council will be selecting one additional research assistantship recipient for Fall 2011 at the master’s degree level. We currently have two research assistantship recipients at the doctoral level enrolled in Food Science (Johari Jordan) and Toxicology (Crystal Lee-Pow). The goal of this new assistantship is to increase the number of students from underrepresented groups completing graduate degrees in the agricultural and life sciences at NC State. The Director’s of Graduate Programs in all CALS departments have been provided all of the information months ago as they are the points of contact who submit the application(s) to us. However, identifying outstanding graduate students from underrepresented groups can be part of all of our responsibilities. For more information, visit the CALS Diversity website at http://harvest.cals.ncsu.edu/diversity and click on “Programs.”
Assistant Dean for Diversity Serves as Panelist at NC Central University (NCCU)- On October 28, 2010 Dr. Lisa Guion participated in the 2010 Summer Internship Panel Session and follow-up one-on-one session with students at NCCU in Durham, NC. During the first one-hour session, Dr. Guion shared basic information on three CALS summer research programs for undergraduates including: 1) Synthetic Biology Summer Undergraduate Research Experience led by Dr. Sue Carson, 2) Kelman Scholars Summer Research Program coordinated by Dr. Shuijin Hu, and 3) the new Environmental Toxicology Summer Research Program led by Dr. David Buchwalter. She also shared information on the USDA National Needs Fellowship on Functional Genomics (that is open to outstanding seniors. Nearly 50 NCCU biology students participated. During the second one-hour session, Dr. Guion spoke one-on-one with 6 students.

CHAMPS Will Hold Second Annual Graduate Student Recruitment Event This Month: Last year the CALS Diversity Council and CALS Academic Programs Office engaged in a new partnership led by the NCSU Office of Diversity and Inclusion and NCSU Graduate School in collaboration with the United Negro College Fund Institute for Capacity Building Enrollment Management Program. Through the Cultivating High Achieving Motivated Professionals and Scholars (CHAMPS) Project, close to 50 highly talented undergraduate students from Morehouse College, Fisk University, Xavier University, Clark Atlanta University, Johnson C. Smith University, Claflin University, and Benedict College will visit NCSU from November 10 through 12, 2009. The visiting students will learn about graduate degree programs as well as undergraduate research opportunities available at NCSU. The visiting students expressed interest in graduate degree programs in specific Colleges at NC State and will have an opportunity to visit those colleges on November 11th and 12th. Thus far, seven students have expressed interest in pursuing graduate education in majors within CALS. These exceptional students have an average GPA of 3.64. All seven visiting students are biology majors with two having minors in chemistry. All visiting students hold prestigious scholarships at their home institutions (e.g. Howard Hughes Biomedical Scholars, McNair Scholars, Presidential Scholars, etc.).

The CALS Diversity Council is very excited about the plans in place for introducing these phenomenal students to the outstanding graduate degree programs within the College. This past summer a 2009 CHAMPS participant, Mr. Odell Isaacs, Xavier University, spent 10 weeks conducting paid research in Dr. Linda Hanley-Bowdoin’s lab (biochemistry) as part of Dr. Sue Carson’s Synthetic Biology REU.

CALS MAPS Students Attend Regional Conference: Nine undergraduate CALS Minority Association of Pre-Health Students (MAPS) participated in the “Serving Our Communities: Bridging the Cultural Gap in Healthcare” conference which was held from October 29th through 31st, 2010 in Atlanta, GA. This conference sponsored by Region IV of the Student National Medical Association (SNMA), afforded CALS students the opportunity to interface with current medical and dental students from universities throughout the Southeast region as well as other pre-health MAPS students. The conference featured a track of educational seminars and professional development workshops for pre-health students focused on how to prepare and be competitive for graduate school in the health professions (e.g. preparing for the MCAT, personal statement writing workshop, mock medical school interview training, etc.). Keynote speakers included prominent physicians, dentists, and other health professionals of color.

COLLEGE ADVANCEMENT

Save the Dates:
The CALS Alumni and Friends Society will host the Patterson Porch Party, in conjunction with the 2010 NC State Homecoming Parade, on Friday afternoon, November 12th. Come and join faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends for free coffee, doughnuts, sodas and snacks and CALS giveaways under the tents in front of Patterson Hall. Then enjoy the 2010 Homecoming Parade as it marches down Hillsborough Street. The Patterson Porch Party starts at 5:00 pm and the Homecoming Parade follows at 6:00 pm.

The 6th annual CALS Retiree Holiday Luncheon will be held on Saturday, December 4th from 10:30 am to 1:00 pm at the McKimmon Center. For more information or to RSVP contact the CALS Alumni Office at calsalums@ncsu.edu or 515-7222.

CALS Advancement News Items:
Gift Planning: If you would like to add a section in your print, electronic or any other written piece regarding gift planning, contact Sonia Murphy (513-0637 sonia_murphy@ncsu.edu).
Sonia can draft a short piece making your alumni and friends aware of how they can support your programs through a bequest, gift of retirement plans, trusts, etc.

CASSADAGA SAVANTS, book two in the murder mystery series by Dr. George T. Barthalmus, has arrived! The sequel to REVENGE THROUGH ME, again with all profits going to the George and Marina Barthalmus Life Sciences Scholarship Endowment, is now available. If you wish, Dr. B. will sign your copy! Order one or both books online, http://www.alumni.ncsu.edu/BarthalmusNovels.
Now Showing: Advancement workshops, featuring CALS development and alumni relations professionals and tailored to your department's needs. These workshops will begin with a 30-45 minute overview of Advancement, especially basic steps in relationship-building and fundraising, and can be followed up with more in-depth small-group sessions (either directly after the overview or on separately-scheduled dates).

Please email the date/time you would like us to visit and begin our workshops with your department. If you'd like us to come to a scheduled faculty meeting, it might be helpful if we are added to the end of your agenda, so that those faculty interested in Advancement (fundraising and alumni/donor relations) may remain for our workshop.

Thank you for involving us! Questions? Just call Chris Wessel at 5-7678 or email chris_wessel@ncsu.edu.

CALS Chronicle Enwsletter: The official enwsletter of CALS Alumni and Friends Society is sent quarterly. Please send your announcements, departmental events, and updates for the next issue to calsalum@ncsu.edu. If you wish to subscribe to the enwsletter, email calsalum@ncsu.edu.

Employee Retiree List: We need your help! We request that all departments and county offices please continue to send us your updated retiree lists with all contact information available. When employees – faculty and staff – retire, just send Scott Troutman (scott_troutman@ncsu.edu) a quick email letting him know so that he can add them to our list.

Secrets of Success: North Carolina Values-Based Leadership makes a perfect motivational gift! General H. Hugh Shelton’s coffee table-book takes a very special look into leadership and values. Through the beautiful black-and white portrait photography and the book’s voices you’ll experience leadership first-hand from some 35 men and women with a unique and special North Carolina connection. Readers will learn how leadership impacted pivotal moments in world politics, business, the military, athletics, religion, and the arts. Proceeds from the sale of this book will support programs for the General H. Hugh Shelton Leadership Center, including 4-H Shelton scholarships, and enhanced initiatives for young people statewide. Available through your local bookstores and Amazon.com. Visit http://cals.ncsu.edu/agcomm/secrets-of-success/

Got Gifts-In-Kind? If not, think about this: In tough economic times, we have to adapt and become more entrepreneurial as we try to find support for our programs. Often, companies and individuals are able to continue donating equipment, materials and supplies, even if they must cut their cash contributions. If you receive any non-cash gifts, please complete the form BA-151 (http://www.cals.ncsu.edu/advancement/ba151.doc) and forward to chris_wessel@ncsu.edu. We will make sure your donors are sent University receipts and acknowledgment letters showing how important their support is to CALS. If you have any questions about non-cash gifts, please call Chris at 919.515.7678.

CALS Gift Legacy Web Site: In an effort to better serve faculty and staff with helpful information, we have created a comprehensive gift planning Web site. We have an increasing number of friends of the College who now are benefiting from life income gifts, gift annuities and other charitable vehicles. Thank you for taking the time to explore the benefits of gift planning at http://www.legacy.vg/ncsucals.
CALS Secure Online Giving: You may support any area of the College and join or renew your Arboretum membership online using our secure website. Visit http://www.cals.ncsu.edu/givenow for safe, convenient online giving! Contact chris_wessel@ncsu.edu for information on linking to online giving for your programs.

Advancement Advantage Guide to Services: College Advancement continues to update our Advancement Advantage Guide to Services online. This information is designed to educate CALS faculty, staff and administrators about the resources available through these divisions. By doing so, we hope to expand access to our services, and increase support of and service to departments and college-wide initiatives.
