What is a “Problem Section”/”Laboratory Section”?

Do I have to take them?

How do I choose?
Laboratory Sections

• Required!
• Sometimes taught by a TA (Teaching Assistant)
• Usually once a week (sometimes bi-weekly) – used for supplemental help and hands-on laboratory experiments
• Most major courses have laboratory sections in addition to the lecture classes
• Choose your section as if it were another class, attendance is required!
Problem Session Section

• Required!
• Sometimes taught by a TA (Teaching Assistant)
• Usually once a week – used for supplemental help and work
• Your writing class will have a problem session section in addition to your lecture hours.
• Choose your section as if it were another class, attendance is required!
